Picture us at the station
Takin' a permanent vacation from the old us
It might take some work
But don't you think we're worth

The aggravation
I can see you look at me with those eyes accusingly
But one and one equals two
Don't forget it's me and you

We're driving this train off the track
Gotta turn it around and find our way back
'Cause the ties that are keepin' us together
Are breakin' apart and starting to weather

There's no one to blame
We both gotta change
It takes two to drive
A love train

It's easy to go north to south
Slide down hill and start to doubt your commitment
Gotta watch the path you take
A short cut just may make or break the connection

So let's start takin' us to heart
Before we find that we're apart
If heaven is what we dare
Our love can take us there

We're driving this train off the track
Gotta turn it around and find our way back
'Cause the ties that are keepin' us together
Are breakin' apart and starting to weather

There's no one to blame
We both gotta change
It takes two to drive
A love train

La, la, la, la, la, la
