You say, you never knew
You could feel like this
Or what the power
Of just one little kiss could do, baby, me too

You're wonderin' if
Your thunderin' heart is okay
Well, if you're asking me boy
All I can say to you is baby, me too

You say, you're fallin'
You hear love callin' you
What a coincidence, boy
Ever since I ran into you
What you're going through
Is happenin' to me too

You say, you're looking
For the words to explain
How it feels when someone else
Feels the same as you, baby, me too

It's like what happens
When two hot wires touch
Well, in ten words or less, boy
That's pretty much what you do to me too

You say, you're fallin'
You hear love callin' you
What a coincidence, boy
Ever since I ran into you
What you're going through
Is happenin' to me too

Me and you are looking through
The windows of our hearts
And forever's looking better
'Cause we know it starts with me and you

You say, you never knew
You could feel like this
Or what the power of just

One little kiss could do, baby me too

You say, you're fallin'
You hear love callin' you
What a coincidence, boy
Ever since I ran into you
What you're going through
Is happenin' to me too
