Hope, everybody needs hope
Some kind of peace of mind
That they can call their own

And everybody needs love
Just a little trust, 'cause sometimes
Eatin', sleepin', breathin', just ain't enough

As long as the truth is on the table
As long as there's kindness down the line
Like the little babies in the cradle, we'll be fine

'Cause I believe, somebody's out there watchin'
Somebody's out there watchin'
I believe, somebody's out there watchin'
Somebody's out there watchin' over me

Dreams, everybody needs dreams
All the joy and happiness
That the good life brings

Everybody needs freedom
Everybody needs touch
Somewhere to lay their heads
When it gets to be too much

Got enough time to last forever
Got enough faith to get us home
We're never gonna die and go to heaven all alone

'Cause I believe, somebody's out there watchin'
Somebody's out there watchin'
I believe, somebody's out there watchin'
Somebody's out there watchin' over me

Hidden from us in the sky above us
I can feel it all around
Hard to see it but I do believe that
There are angels looking down

Yeah, I believe, somebody's out there watchin'
