convincing myself i don't want you but nothing i say can make it true how can love hurt so much how can love make you cry when we hunger for love's touch why do we even try

please tell me how can love cause such pain why do tears fill your eyes love is trust love's not a game love is life with a sigh (ah) why do i believe in dreams that don't come true when the magic's over what can you do

why do i have to love her why can't it be another would it be easier with you tell me
