Whenever I try to explain what's wrong with me
The doctors will meet me with eyebrows raised sceptically
They don't believe me

All I need is a daily fix of catastrophe

They say there's nothing wrong
I should keep on keeping on
Scare bad thoughts away
Or just ignore the things they say
That's easier said than done
If I'm the only one
To think there's something wrong
Diagnose me "Dramaholic"

I tried writing notes three times a day everyday
it doesn't help
I practiced my "yes"es and "no"s and "maybe later"s it doesn't help

I even have a high horse in my hallway
And I swear I fall off of it everyday

But they still say there's nothing wrong
I should keep on keeping on
Scare bad thoughts away
Or just ignore the things they say
That's easier said than done
If I'm the only one
ere's something wrong
Diagnose me "Dramaholic"

They say there's nothing wrong
I should keep on keeping on
Scare bad thoughts away

The same way I did yesterday
And the day before x 4

They say there's nothing wrong

I should keep on keeping on
But that's easier said than done
You know I'm a dramaholic
There's nothing wrong
They say there's nothing wrong
