I'm coming over but I won't be long
I'm coming over
I'm making a new song

I pick a car and it's a fifteen minutes drive
Rock Classics on the radio
To clear my mind

Sometimes in the weekends
We meet up at our favorite cafÃ©
I'll order a chai tea
And you will have the usual au lait

And when the place gets crowded
Then they freak out
And they play the music louder

Here comes another day in isolation
Hold out your hand, feel my brain burns
You suck and lick but you still don't know why
I could fuck your brains out
But I'm not interested in that life
