Snap your fingers, walk around a bit,
Shake your shoulders, go to town a bit,
When it's gotcha, you'll get hotcha;
That's college rhythm!

Tilt your skirt or tilt your pants a bit,
First you strut, and then you dance a bit,
Do it lowdown, hi-de-ho town;
That's college rhythm!

Sway, and then you'll stop,
And then you'll hop,
And then you just must add a little rumba!

[Scats]

It's so easy, there's no trick in it,
Learn it quick and get the kick in it,
All the world will soon be doin' it!
Hey, professor! Yes-yes-yessir,
That's college rhythm!

Sway, and then you'll stop,
And then you'll hop,
And then you just must add a little rumba!
