Everything is fine
Everything is good
The camera's live
Quick try and think of something
Cover up the truth in style now
Electric eyes
Control the world's perceptions
A brainwash with the tape on Orwell's warned us allâ€¦
Manifesting, consequences of Yielding human minds

So lie to me again and again
Making us into
The sheep that follow
You to, (No end)
Nobody cares right, and nobody knows
The complacency kills, and they already know
I can't sit here hands tied EYES CLOSED!
Back and again run away
It's all for you
Run away it's always because of you

Cut out the eyes,
And blind your mind
Tell me, what is wrong here?
They'd break our backs in
The name of progress
Destroy the en-e-my inside...

The intentions inside are hidden behind
A mask of intellect a suit and a smile
Focus the lens and try to defy
Any feelings of guilt for creating a lie
It's the mask that you wear
That effectively hides
The deceptive media
That blinds our mindsâ€¦

So throw your rocks of treachery

Stones of betrayal, bricks of deceit
Soon everything you are
Will fall into collapse
The feeling inside
From creating a line
That's made of glass

Cut out the eyes,
And blind your mind
Tell me, what is wrong here?
They'd break our backs in
The name of progress
Destroy the en-e-my inside..

Why do you seek to destroy our nation?
Why do you want to make us fail?
Why do you twist the truth?
Projecting the lies from your glass box into our MINDSâ€¦

Blind Your Mind take them awayâ€¦
Selling our souls, profits in gold, take them awayâ€¦ Buying us out, force feeding now, hide all the shameâ€¦
Selling our souls, but I know the goal, stuffed in their banks... yeah, yeah, yeaheeahhâ€¦
