The trouble with friends is knowing when you've got to let them go.

Convenient circumstances and excuses is the lesson I should know.

The trouble with loyalty is loyalty don't come that easy and I know I've failed so many times, but I swear I've finally got it right

Finally got it right by the time you've given up.

I'd meet you down the road one day, but the memories they fade.

When you look into the mirror what do you see, a friend in need?

A friend in need and you threw away the key.

'Cause I, I never brought this on us...

You never looked up, you never looked at me.

You brought this on yourself.

This song is for you, the only way to make this right.

You take it, you leave it, you love it, you fake it and I won't

I guess the best thing for me to say is that I'm happy..

I'm happy for you anyway.

I know I failed to make it up to you in your eyes but the awkward air that we breathe is always from the heart of you when we're in the same room.

'Cause I, I never brought this upon us...

You never looked up, you never looked at me.

You brought this on yourself.

This song is for you, the only way to make this right.

You take it, you leave it, you love it, you fake it and I won't fight

I know I failed so many times, this time I swear I'll get it right.

I dare you to look into my eyes before you turn and walk away.

This song is for you, the only way to make this right.
