When you're right in front of me
It's so hard for me to say
I've grown so pessimistic
And it hurts to say goodbye
But I hate it when we stay
Why does it kill to feel alone?

Can you take this all away?
(Can you take this all away?)
Can you make it safe to stay?
(Can you make it safe to stay?)

So, tell me that you love me
And that's what I wanna hear
I've been so selfish lately
And I feel so older now
And even colder in my heart
This place doesn't feel like home anymore

Can you take this all away?
(Can you take this all away?)
Can you make it safe to stay?
(Can you make it safe to stay?)
