It all happened so suddenly
I wasn't even prepared
To lose the one I love the most
I feel so alone and betrayed

BRIDGE:

My soul has been undressed, make it as a dream to fall
When love lets you down, you are left completely on your own

CHORUS:

What is love all about?
Right now it seems so hard to tell
What is love all about?
I feel that I have reached the end
What is love all about?
Right now it seems so hard to tell
What is love all about?
I feel that I have reached the end

BRIDGE:

My soul has been undressed, make it as a dream to fall
When love lets you down, you are left completely on
your own
(On your own)

CHORUS

What is love all about
(Repeated 4 times)
