Walk up-on my worn red carpet
Bought cheap in an antique market

A winding path that stretches far
Further than the eye can see
Take the stroll to happiness
Joy and mystery

Walk up-on my worn red carpet
Bought cheap in an antique market

Pleasant times are there for you
Or anyone who follows me
A seek through world of silent sounds
Filled with ecstasy

Will the piper call the tune
You'll be back again so soon

Walk up-on my worn red carpet
Bought cheap in an antique market

Will the piper call the tune
You'll be back again so soon

Walk up-on my worn red carpet
Bought cheap in an antique market

Walk up-on my worn red carpet
Bought cheap in an antique market
