There's so many people who told me about the world and
It's ways
I never believed them at first and I cursed 'em
I pulled myself out the wind yea
Remember the man that's fights you and villians
Remember the good old days?
We had a fight the night before we left
My head was being a mess

There is a hurricane within me
And it takes control of me

Did I let you in, Did I push you out?
You know I think I still love you
Yeah you still make a sound
Did I let you listen, or did I sell you out?
You know I can't quite remember
What life is about, without you
Can I steal your grace?

With all of the people in all of the world with you
There's always something to say
You never cared if I made it the minute of, lost and on
The same day
I had to stop when I was a fixerup oh with somewhere to Go
And now I know that it's just one soul you have to take Away

There is a hurricane within me
And it takes control of me

Did I let you in, Did I push you out?
You know I think I still love you
Yeah you still make a sound, without you
Can I steal you grace?

Did I let you in, Did I push you out again?
When I think I still love you
This feeling inside

Did I let you listen, did I sell you out
You know I can't quite remember
What life is about, without you
Can I steal your grace?
