In the darkness of space
They suffer in temptation
Dementia creeping closer
But what difference does it make?

Sometimes the best way up is down
And for some moments in life there are no words
The sky is filled with dead stars
There's no escape, there's no return

In a state of terror and confusion
With euphoria as an ambition
Through the doors of perception
We will leave this land behind

(I know, you know, we know)
Wide open space so out of place
We were exiled and we were disgraced
(It's true)

(I know, you know, we know)
Eye at the center, dawn of our race
Edge of the cosmos, heart of all space
(It's true)

(I know, you know, we know)
Wide open space so out of place
We were exiled and we were disgraced
(It's true)

(I know, you know, we know)
Eye at the center, dawn of our race
Edge of the cosmos, heart of all space
(It's true)

The ancient deception, the so-called fall from grace
And Eden was just a place in outer space
The shining ones, the keepers of the garden
The ancient ones, those who came from the sky

I know, you know, we know it's true
I know, you know, we know it's true

(I know, you know, we know)
Wide open space so out of place
We were exiled and we were disgraced
(It's true)

(I know, you know, we know)
Eye at the center, dawn of our race
Edge of the cosmos, heart of all space
(It's true)

(I know, you know, we know)
Wide open space so out of place
We were exiled and we were disgraced
(It's true)

(I know, you know, we know)
Eye at the center, dawn of our race
Edge of the cosmos, heart of all space
(It's true)
