A visitor appears before my eyes
A vision where I am king...eternal
And in the blackness of night
I shall conquer...I shall rise
My eyes they gleam with triumph and glory
Many battles I have fought...and won

And for centuries have I ruled as king

But still the greatest conquest is to come
I will forever seek
To dominate the weak
Oh...how they shall suffer

The anger of my hate

But victory shall come...

Embrace the dark conquest
"Forever winter...forever night..."
A tear
