Here is our little house my friend

a room above the sun is all we need

This is where I wanna stay within in a room above

I come to peace

Here is our little garden-love

Here we breathe and live to stay inside

You can always come as you are

You will never ever be denied

This is where I wanna lay right beside you I come down

This is all there is today

to you I will run

To my room above the sun

Here is our little castle

This is our private property

This is our little hideaway

Just the way, the way you wanted it to be
This is where I wanna lay
right beside you I come down
This is all there is today
To you I will run
To my room above the sun
