Hello (hello)
Can you hear me? (whats that?) Got questions on my mind (go on)
Can you take high?
Can you take me higher, and higher?

Coz I've been wandering down the road and back to when I got knocked right off my feet again a curveball hit me right between the eyes. Did you see it coming? broken down, broken up broken off from what I got and I'm left wondering, "Why's this happening to me?"

But I can't deny, when I wonder why, when nothing goes right and I'm hung out to dry, yeah, but its easy to see, God you matter
through this life of mine

Where are you? (I'm here) you know, sometimes you're hard to find (well not really) I can't hear the Choir when I'm under fire, When I'm under fire

You'll find me on my knees again squeezing in one more prayer Jesus don't leave me with this battle waging, raging at my door; its time to call for backup, lost the plot lost my way lost the lot and I'm still wondering, "Why's this happening to me?"

But I can't deny, when I wonder why, when
nothing goes right and I'm hung out to dry,
yeah, but its easy to see, God you matter

Take it from me, its hard to see, with my world falling down; a pocket full of dreams, slipping out the seams; but you're there, with me all the same, pick me up, and I'll start again (Guitar!)

But I can't deny, when I wonder why, when
nothing goes right and I'm hung out to dry,
yeah, but its easy to see, God you matter
through this

But I can't deny, when I wonder why, when
nothing goes right and I'm hung out to dry, but its easy to see, God you matter to me, and I matter to you, God you matter
