"Play God"

Trying to understand
How someone like you can still sleep at night
Or are you too busy playing God
To fuckers that are chewing on your lies
(Another loser born!)

Fed on my fragile mind
Still I stood up on my broken knees
'Cause everything that you took
Gave me immunity to your disease
(Another life is torn!)

I won?t hear, I won?t see
I will never be a part of your cause
I?m alive and I still breathe
And you?re just a fucking waste of

Time, what you tried to offer me
Was it really worth it?
Sew up this hole inside of me
'Cause you?ll never take it

I don?t fear what you are
Because you?re only dangerous to what is weak
Clinging to the stories you create
You make a living off of souls that bleed
(Another dotted line!)

I won?t hear, I won?t see
I will never be a part of your cause
I?m alive and I still breathe
And you?re just a fucking waste of

Time, what you tried to offer me
Was it really worth it?
Sew up this hole inside of me
'Cause you?ll never take it

Time, what you tried to offer me
Was it really worth it?
Sew up this hole inside of me

'Cause you?ll never take it

I'm
I?m becoming of nothing, this is what you started
I?m becoming of nothing, this is what you started
I?m becoming of nothing, this is what you started
I?m becoming of nothing, this is what you started

Time, what you tried to offer me
Was it really worth it?
Sew up this hole inside of me
'Cause you?ll never take it

Time, what you tried to offer me
Was it really worth it?
Sew up this hole inside of me
'Cause you?ll never take it

Never take it, never take it, never take it
Never take it, never take it, never take it
Never take it, never take it, never take it
Never take it, never take it, never take it
Never take it, never take it, never take it
Never take it...
