So you tell me she's a little cheater, she's a maneater,
yeah that's alright
'Cos I think I know her better, you can keep your chatter
And I know it's gonna be alright

Chorus:

Bite your tongue - you know I don't wanna hear this Bite your tongue - you know I've been told before
And I don't wanna hear it anymore
'Cos you're not talking 'bout my girl (no no)
She is her daddy's pearl (oh oh)
She wouldn't hurt me for the world (no no, oh oh oh)

Everybody seems to get the kicks waitin' at some fixation they got
That I'm gonna find out sooner or later They're sure it's comin', but I know it's not

chorus

Daddy's pearl, you know she's daddy's pearl
You know she's daddy's pearl, you know she's daddy's pearl

(Solo)
