Dance this World Away"

by Rick Springfield

from TAO

(c) 1985 RCA records

Every body looks so spaced out there busy bowing to the priest of noise turn it up and make it down out the wrning bad news for the girls and boys every looks so romantic acting like it's nothing at all

Look out for Number One Chorus: working for the week and living to the beat

dance this world away

dance this world away

dance this world away

dance this world away

I see people all dressed like Nero

Fiddling while Rome burn in strife personal responsbilty zero we've lost that rhythm of life there a shadow on our bright horizon

I won't be manna falling out of the sky the hard rain hits everyone

Chorus

Somewhere this is a ship that's sinking why do I think that nobody knows looking out for Number One

Chorus to end
