She looked at me with eyes that cut right through me and said
"You must be blind
Let me tell you a little something about yourself, you're the hurting kind"
I must admit after the pain and fight
I've a sneakin' suspicion that she might be right

I love you, I love you, I love you - but I can't stop hurting you
I want to, I want to - I can't stop hurting you
I can't, I can't - I can't stop hurting you, it's getting bad
I don't know what to do

I see you packin' up all your precious little things, they mean so much to you I hurt you, now you're moving out again, but we know just what you'll do
We'll see the error of our ways in crime
With conciliatory promises we'll change this time

Chorus:
I love you, I love you, I love you - I can't stop hurting you
I want to, I want to - I can't stop hurting you
I can't, I can't - I can't stop hurting you, it's getting bad
I don't know what to do
I love you, I love you - I can't stop hurting you
I need to, I need to - I can't stop hurting you
I can't, I can't - I can't stop hurting you, it's getting bad
I don't know what to do

And when you go I miss you all the night
The wounds heal from the scratch and bite
I don't know what's wrong, I don't know what too right
But I can't stop hurting you, I can't stop hurting you

(Solo)

We talk so cool about the pro's and cons
When I get hard-headed I just can't hold on chorus repeats out
