performed by Rick Springfield)

I can see the path you're cutting, it cost me a little piece of my heart

I can see the doors you're shutting, 'cause they were open at the start

Baby loving you has been hard on me

You're such a tough little sister just looking for Mr.
Right

On the wrong side of town

Chorus:

You better love somebody, it's late, you better love somebody, don't wait

You better love somebody, don't tempt fate

You're gonna push it just a little too far, one night

Your eyes are wild, your skin's so white, you're undernourished and overfed

She's got the teeth, she knows how to bite, 'cause when you bit I bled

You got the perfect image of the perfect man

You're a tough little sister, but you'll settle for a mister tonight

But you're running out of time

chorus

I'm only saying what I feel, you think I'm wrong I know

You thought I was sleeping at the wheel, I thought that you were driving

(Solo)

You better love somebody! You better love somebody!

One night - oh oh oh oh, one night - oh oh oh oh

One night - oh oh oh oh, one night - oh oh oh oh
