"Smile for the camera"

performer: Rick Springfield

I see you standin out there in the hall you seem so nervous waiting for his call

I focus on you and reach for the lens the shutter snaps again

Chorus:

Smile for the camera you know the camera never ever lies

I've been watching you with eager hungry eyes for sometime

I hold my lens in the middle of the night

Visions of you dancing in the strobe light

Up on the wall is a picture or two of someone who looks like you

Smile for the camera you know the camera is my private eye

I got color transparent

I got Black and White

lies

I've been watching you with telephoto eyes

Smile Smile for me....

Smile for the camera X5.....
