Stand up!

Try a little bit of love and a bit of persuasion

I heard love plus love's a universal equation

But don't let somebody push you 'round, you gotta
stand up

Stand up, you got something to say, don't sit there and pout it

Put your feet on the seat, stand up and shout it

But don't let somebody sit you down, stand up

Stand up (stand up), stand up (stand up) (repeats 4x)

You wanna own the world, you want it stuffed and mounted

You can't do it sitting down, stand up and be counted

But if you wanna break the rules, stand up

This ain't no movie theater, this ain't no classroom

Nobody's gonna tell you what to do

So come on everybody, get up, I want you

Stand up, let's see a little upward motion

You've got to clap your hands, if you wanna commotion

But don't let somebody sit you down, stand up

Try a little bit, try a little bit of love and a bit of persuasion

I heard love plus love's a universal equation

But don't let somebody push you 'round, you gotta
stand up

I said, don't let somebody push you 'round, you gotta
stand up

Don't let somebody push you 'round, stand up!
