Coming down all the way from heaven
Crashing stars she had once wished upon
Hoping that the weather doesn't get much worse up
there
Cause down here, well, it's burning her insides

She wants just to hold his hand
But he wants a little more than she has planned
What she wants is what she gets
But this time the sunshine is getting her wet

Don't let the summer pass you on by
Never let your hair cover those eyes
No, never lose that smile
Please, never lose your love
Keep it like you always want it

Coming down all the way from heaven
Crashing stars she once had wished upon
Hoping that the weather doesn't get much worse up
there
Cause down here, well, it's burning her insides

She wants just to hold his hand
He wants a little more than she has planned and what she wants is what she gets
But his time the sunshine is getting her wet

Don't let the summer pass you on by
Never let your hair cover those eyes
No, never lose that smile
Please, never lose your love
Keep it like you always want it

Don't let the summer pass you on by
Never let your hair cover those eyes
No, never lose that smile
Please, never lose your love
Keep it like you always want it

Don't let the summer pass you on by
Never let your hair cover those eyes

No, never lose that smile
Please, never lose your love
Keep it like you always want it please
