As my lust is denied
A raging heat builds up inside me
You were there, so cool
Tonight you're wearing a different perfume

You're so wild
You probably have other guys
I punched the door you walked out of Saying you had something to do

Who's holding you? (closer)
I'm sleeping alone (my heart)
Has been swallowed up
By a darkness I can't even identify

Outside it's rain, rain, raining; I want you
Crazy rain, you're not here
The raindrops claw at the window
Stirring up an urge in me
I'm in pain, pain, pain on my own, my heart aches
Deeply pain, I'm writhing in pain
The closer I come to losing your love
The more devastatingly beautiful you become

Desperation slowly
Seeps in
At some point you've gotten good
At telling what I know are lies

In my heart I'm taming
That beast called jealousy
Try longing
Not with your body but with your soul

What made you do that? (I'm sad)
I want you to tell me (more honestly)
I know everyone laughs at me and calls me a dork
But I love you

It's always rain, rain, raining, I want you
Crazy rain, it's pouring in my heart

You can't love anyone seriously
That's your weakness
Love is pain, pain, pain, it gets deeper
Deeply pain, by the second
I can't become just another lonely guy
Just because of a bad rumour

Outside it's rain, rain, raining; I want you
Crazy rain, you're not here
The raindrops claw at the window
Stirring up an urge in me
I'm in pain, pain, pain on my own, my heart aches
Deeply pain, I'm writhing in pain
The closer I come to losing your love
The more devastatingly beautiful you become

It's always rain, rain, raining, I want you
Crazy rain, it's pouring in my heart
You can't love anyone seriously
That's your weakness
Love is pain, pain, pain, it gets deeper
Deeply pain, by the second
I can't become just another lonely guy
