"Sounds of life"

Listen to the sounds of life
Gently ticking from your veins
That's a clock that never stops
Listen to it beat.

Beyond the edge of time and space
Where no man goes who dare not dream
Beyond the clatter and the race
Is a dream of wings

And if you dare
You could be there
With a blink of your eye
With a flick -
Of your hair.

There's a bandage round your head
You don't even know it's there
You can't see anything at all
It's all illusion.

Beyond I must, beyond I should
Beyond I may, beyond I would
Beyond where prophets twist the sky...

And if you dare
You could be there
With a blink of your eye
With a flick -
Of your hair.
