(piano introduction)

(spoken)

Are you ready?

Let's go!

(guitar riff)

I'm so messed up

Without you, girl

And I think I'm going insane

Nobody else

In my mind

Will play these stupid games

And I just think

That we would wind up together, baby

The crowd dosen't think wrong

(chorus)

The reason is you

I can't just be with two

I'm so caught up without you, lady

Nobody else will see

What our relationship used to be

I'm so caught up

And I'm going crazy

(guitar riff)

I may be your hero

But my heart is killing me so bad

I'm really scarred

And that kiss

Was really beautiful

But I think I'm lost

Without your heart

(chorus)

Girl, I know you've been so lonely

Nobody will let go of you, baby

I'm so full of hate
You told you already have a boyfriend
And I was really ticked that day
But there's one thing I must tell you

Yeah, baby

There's one thing I must tell you

I love you!

(chorus 2x)

Oh, yeah
I'm so caught up without you
Baby

(spoken)
You know
I know that you hate me
But you are the most beautiful thing I've ever seen
And I love you
My second album starts...

NOW!

(goes to second track)
