I miss the part
When we were moving forward now
(On our way down)
And maybe someday
They'll be something
More that love

Just know I'll never tell

When you're on your way down
(Through the clouds)
And you're waiting for your body's reentry again

We speak in different voices
When fighting with the ones we love
We speak in different voices
What can we say what we're thinking of

I miss the part
Now that you told me everything
(On our way down)
And I was blessed
And I forgotton
How to love

You said you'd never tell

When you're on your way down
(Through the clouds)
And you're waiting for your body's reentry again

(chorus)

Not even I will tell

We speak in different voices
When fighting with the ones we love
We speak in different voices
We say these things
To know they're real

(chorus 2X)

To know they are real

REAL!

I'll never tell
