Well, well, well, ooh whoa

Check it out

Sitting at the light she pulled up on my right

Looking in the mirror making sure her shit was tight

I know she felt me watching but was scared to look my way

I know she wants to look, but I think I've got her shook

Under pressure, don't know what to do

She's got two cuties with her and I got my peoples too

She put it in one, stepped on the gun and made a "U"

Looked inside, gave me a smile, then she blew

What am I gonna do?

1 - Tell me which way did she go

Pretty young thing in a GS4

Love was so bangin' had me open from the door

Tell me have you seen her

She had a smile that I couldn't forget

Shining brighter than the flawless piece around her neck

The girl was so fine I just gotta make her mine

Tell me have you seen her

Have you seen her?

It's been awhile now and I'm steady on the case

Everyday I'm looking for her face

Is like a dream to me and I gotta make it real

Gotta let her know just how I feel

Now there she goes again driving by

I hit my horn, she throws her beams on high

I put my joint in gear and I tried to give chase

She disappears again without a trace

Tell me have you seen her?

Repeat 1

I gotta find her, where did you go, babe?

Listen girl you seem to think you got away from me

You got me looking for you in all these busy streets

I must admit I got it bad for you

It's just a little taste of all the things I'll do for you

Repeat 1 till end
