Music to me, yeah

You're more than a symphony More than the highest note could ever reach Whenever you speak

You're more than a melody More than a hundred notes in harmony Singing to me

Now I'm standing on the corner and you call my name And your rhythm sparks a rush of blood inside my veins

Just like music to me, yeah (I hear it, I hear it)
Simple and sweet, the sound of love
Music to me, yeah (I hear it, I hear it)
Singing to me, your love like music to me
Is like music to me

More like a mystery Like the perfect voice inside of my head Whenever you say my name

Constantly crucified

And every time I'm getting higher

Clinging to me, infectious and free

Now I'm standing on the corner and you call my name And your vision sparks a memory inside my brain

Just like music to me, yeah (I hear it, I hear it) Simple and sweet, the sound of love Music to me, yeah (I hear it, I hear it) Singing to me, your love like music to me

Cause it's your song
Baby I could listen all night long
Like a broken record, I hang on your every word

Let it play on, play on, play on

Let it play on, play on, play on

You're just like music to me, yeah (I hear it, I hear it)
Simple and sweet, the sound of love
Music to me, yeah (I hear it, I hear it)
Singing to me, your love like music to me
Is like music to me

Let it play on, play on, play on Let it play on, play on, play on

Music to me, yeah
