When the night falls in
Girls get dress up fine
And weave their charms amongst the boys
As they are passing by
While alone here in my room
I revolve around the tune
Helpless softly up from the street
And into the night sky

Up here night birds fly
Through my lonely time
I watch windows spill a lite up
On the streets outside
Half the world keeps where it keeps
Upon pillows, under sheets
Lovers often love asleep
Knowing it's all right

Aaaaaa
If you were here nothing could matter
Aaaaaa
How long have I got to keep holding up?

Aaaaaa
If you were here nothing could matter
Aaaaaa
How long have I got to keep holding up?

When the night falls in
The girls get dress up fine
And leave their foot prints where they danced
With someone close tonight
But alone here in my room
I let the fingers of the moon
Touch my heart and tell me loose
Until the sunlight

When the night falls in
When the night falls in
When the night falls in
