She's all dressed up, gonna go to the show
She's gonna be there in the very front row - I know
And when I stare into that space, I'll always see her face
I'm never alone when I'm up on stage

(Chorus)

Angela - everything's gonna be alright
Angela - there's gonna be rainbows tonight
Angela, Angela, Angela

She's got my posters up on the wall
She used a box of tacks to make sure it just don't fall
And when I stare into that space
I will always see her face
I'm never all alone when I'm up on stage

(chorus)

She blew a kiss at my Guitar
And it went straight right through my heart (repeat chorus)
