It's the crime...of all time

Well it's the crime of the century
About the things I did
It's the crime of the century
I don't remember, but I guess I did
I'm the crime of the century
That's what you say
I guess I gone and broke your heart
But what else can I say?

Crime of the century
And now I've gotta pay

I'm a fool if I say I love you
You'll only make me hurt
What's a bad boy to do
But to live without you

Crime of the century
And now I've gotta pay

Well I'm a liar if I say I love you
A fool if I say I don't
I guess I'll break right into your heart
I never said that I won't

Crime of the century
And now I've gotta pay
