If your head isn't right, if you falter
Let it run, let it burn through the trees

Tie it on, let it fall, let it linger
Hide away from the comfort of me

And we'll talk about what's to talk about

CHORUS:

April, hold up all you have and let me down
I don't ever want to wonder about you now
Wash the remnants from your memory, sight unseen
April, take me from your heart and cut me clean

Take your card
Lay it down on the table
It's a heart, it's a way back to me
On your own, suddenly you are able
But it's harder to go once you're free

And I will try to block the light

CHORUS

Wash the remnants from your memory, sight unseen
April, take me from your heart and cut me clean
