Call it what you will
I'll be standing still
Watching you until you make up your mind

Pack it, send it home
Or leave it there alone
A perfect, empty stone with nothing inside

BRIDGE:

All that you ever wanted could slip away
The water is getting colder than I can take

CHORUS:

Oh, who are you waiting for?
Oh, who are you waiting for?

I'll be knocking soon
Open up your room
Now I won't assume you're letting me in

Show me how to prove
I'm good enough for you
That we can make it through
The thick and the thin
