You've heard the one
About the man who they say
Had the golden touch

He used to mingle
With the mortals
Til his lady had too much

She had to find
The reason for his sway
It seems i talk too much

Her vengeance stopped me
Dead in my tracks
Now i can't speak

Nemesis

Ooh, nemesis
She's got the wrong girl
Ooh, nemesis
She's got the wrong girl
Ooh, nemesis
She's got the wrong girl

And now she caught me
After her man but
She was mistaken

And now i find my true love's gaze
Is fixed only upon himself
The only charm she'll let me wear

Is to follow him and repeat
And i wither here beside him still
No body, just my voice

Nemesis

Ooh, nemesis
She's got the wrong girl

Ooh, nemesis
She's got the wrong girl
Ooh, nemesis
She's got the wrong girl

You know i wish i was
The right girl
You know i wish i was
The right girl for him
You know i wish i was
The right girl
You know i wish i was
You know i wish i was

Nemesis

Ooh, nemesis
She's got the wrong girl
Ooh, nemesis
She's got the wrong girl
Ooh, nemesis
She's got the wrong girl
Ooh, nemesis
She's got the wrong girl

You know i wish i was
