Looking for any sign of life
Something to get me through the night
Still i can feel the pulse inside
Is there a human here tonight

You
You move me...
You move

I want you
To hear me
I'm screaming I'm screaming
I want you
With me
I'm screaming I'm screaming

Moving as if it weren't a dream
(if it weren't a dream)
A figment of non reality
(figment)
Watching your body rise and fall
(body rise and fall)
What if I wasn't here at all?

You
You move me
You move me

I want you
To hear me
I'm screaming I'm screaming
I want you
With me
I'm screaming I'm screaming

It'll be alright

As I hovered overhead
Went through all the things that you said felt your fingers on my spine

you said

Don't worry baby
It'll be alright
It'll be just fine

You said I feel where once were wings
Your face could make angels sing
You said you'd never leave me
You said

Don't worry baby
It'll be alright
It'll be just fine

I want you
To Hear Me
I'm screaming I'm screaming
I want you
With me
I'm screaming I'm screaming

It'll be alright
