"Falling Apart"

right now I'm feeling useless it's all the same
it's all the same to me this curse is growing stronger this isn't how I thought it would be now I would pave the way but I've got nothing to say thinking out loud who do you want me to be me

we saw, WE HAD A VISION we heard, BUT DIDN'T LISTEN I never could accept what they would offer what they would give my battle's not against you I'm fighting with myself because I'm pulled in each direction they're all the same with different names

fall down fall, falling apart we can't pretend that we've ever been safe can you hear the sound believe

find your reasons beyond feed the urge, take it beyond
