I want what the future holds now.
I want to be overwhelmed right now.
I want reality to set in.
We can't sit and wait forever.
With time invested, with no interest and no rewards,
And no regrets, and there's no fear, there's no shame.
It's just the thrill of the drive.

I want, i want.

You don't say i don't want to talk about it.
For what it's worth we can only try and try so hard.
Get away i want to be the best.
For what it's worth we can only try and try so hard.

I want, i want it now!

Don't make me beg, it's human nature.
Everything's at my fingertips now.

It's what i want, it's what i want.
And i want, i want it now!
