"Move On"

Visit "Move On" on MotoLyrics.com

Stay away; it's not a world for you Here is true fear, and it never disappears

You're water in a desert land, a candle in a storm,
And when all your tears are gone and you think you're strong It eats you alive

Move on! you better believe me move on If you don't like the taste of blood you better receive it, before you are lost!
Move on! you better believe me move on
If you don't love the taste of blood you better receive it , before you are gone!

Live for the day there is no tomorrow Bad boys die young that is how it should be done

Your soul will be forever lost in the sea of broken dreams
No one can hear you scream when you're down too deep and fear for your life
