It's deep underground
Past the bedrock
But don't dig strait down
You'll regret that

But now you feel brave
Equipped with your spade
To roam in these caves

Not looking for gold;
This stuff's purple
Or so I've been told
By some people

I'll find a few bricks
Where the two of these mix
With a couple of clicks

(I'll be swingin' my pick)

This is all the prep that I go through
Even if my tools are just make-do

Moving to the Nether
I'm moving to the Nether
I'm moving to the Nether

Ten blocks is the magical total
'Cause that's enough to build up my portal

Moving to the Nether
I'm moving to the Nether
I'm moving to the Nether

Welcome to Hell
Weather's great here!
So, put up a chair
Have a cold beer!

You can live by the sea;
So happy you'll be;

With your cobblestone tree

Oh!

The neighbors aren't right,
They're delicious!
We eat bacon all night,
It's nutritious!

Hear all of them squeal
For the damage I deal
There's plenty to steal

(Hack and slash)
(Gold nuggets? I'm rich!)

Who cares if we're giving up sunlight?
Glowstone's all we need
To keep things bright

Down here in the Nether,
We love it in the Nether,
You'll love it in the Nether.

Don't expect to see any creepers;
That's one of my favorite features!

Down here in the Nether,
We love it in the Nether,
You'll love it in the Nether.

You've gotta know
You have to fight
Learn to play, there's mobs but it's not night.

A wooden sword won't do it;
They're gonna blast right through it!
If you got a potion, use it!

So watch your back,
I wont warn you twice!
Fight the Ghast;

Ooooooooooh!
Make me cry!

They'll shoot the ground around you
Make a hole to fall through
You know you're probably gonn-oooh

Ah

Ah
Eeh
Yah!

(In the lava again!)

Feels like hell the things I've just been through
Won't believe a word when I tell you

You know what, screw the Nether,
You know what, screw the Nether,
You know what, screw the Nether!

Can't believe I lost my new gear too,
Think I'd better come and rejoin you,

You know what, screw the Nether,
You know what, screw the Nether,
You know what, screw the Nether!

[Lewis]
"That's it!
I'm sick of this place!
It sucks!
It's too hot,
It never rains,
I'm sweaty,
All my clothes are dirty, flithly and on fire!

I'm absolutely sick of this place! Ah, Uhm, I-I miss nature,
all the pigs, the cows, and all of that, the sheep 'n'
stuff.
I didn't think I'd miss it, but I do. Oh my god! How sad,
I wish, I wish I could just return to the normal world again,..

Bye!
