I just wish you could always be here
To play the songs I love to hear.
You can develop a theme or an emotion
from the sixties and seventies.
How you remember each one by name
Has always been your own special game
but oh babe, it is a gift you have!
It is so special!
It is a moment in time that will always last

It will always be a part of our past.
It will always be a part of our past.
It is a moment in time that will always last.

I just wish you could always be here
To spin your records for me to hear.
You can take the sound of country or folk
Or the blues or even rock
And turn it into your own rendition
Of what it is like to be a true musician

but oh babe, it is a gift you have!
It is so special!
It is a moment in time that will always last

It will always be a part of our past.
It will always be a part of our past.
It is a moment in time that will always last.

I just wish you could always be here
To wave your magic wand so we all could hear
Just some of the mystical music of the Here and Now
From both an old and a new generation of singers and artists
Of all your favorites like Phil Oakes, Joan Biaz, Joni
Mitchell,
Bob Dylan, the Beatles, John Prine, and Kate Wolf..
Of course, you would never leave out Steve Goodman,
James Taylor, Harry Chapin, John Gorka, Lyle Lovett,
Greg Brown, or Jessie Winchester

So we could all hear and feel the sounds
Of their timeless music as it resonates in our hearts,
In our minds, and within our souls.
It will always be a part of our past.
It will always be a part of our past.
It is a moment in time that will always last.
