I just thought that I should say
That I have never felt this way
I never looked a storm right in the eye
Always so much locked up inside

I don't wanna wait for the storm to pass
I wanna find some peace at last
I wanna lay down on the grass
I wanna watch the clouds that flood the sky

I feel bored and I feel stale
Never set to win, never set to fail
Everything has fallen into line
I don't feel that shiver down my spine

I don't wanna wait for the storm to pass
I wanna find some peace at last
I wanna lay down on the grass
I wanna watch the clouds that flood the sky

Turn the red into black
In my mind I know there's danger awaiting
When the thunder starts to clap
In my ears I know that I am waiting

I don't wanna wait for the storm to pass
I wanna find some peace at last
I wanna lay down on the grass
I wanna watch the clouds that flood the sky
