On another day we will run through life
We will sacrifice
Never afraid to try
On another day we will learn to live without
All our fears and doubts
No tomorrow only now.

If we only have our rights for another day
If we only have our hearts for another day
And if we only have our rights for another day
Then we will have our time again

On another day we will win the fight
And step into the light
Only fail when we don't try
So we will stand up when we believe
There's no limit to what we can achieve

Every moment here is a moment to be seized

If we only have our rights for another day
If we only have our hearts for another day
And if we only have our rights for another day
Then we will have our time again

We run through life
Never afraid to try
We're in a race but there's no prize
We won the war but at what price?

If we only have our rights for another day
If we only have our hearts for another day
And if we only have our rights for another day
Then we will have our time again

We will have our time again
