No rest for the wicked
No mercy for the rotten
Go create some madness

More coverage than the homeless
Your image here to stay

You and I, we read about it
We idolize the criminal mind
Is there a method in our madness?
And we fantasize of committing crimes
And so we remain

You're taken by the story
No escaping from the glory
Never to be forgotten
Now you're believin' any wrong press
You're not going away

You and I, we read about it
We idolize criminal mind
Is there a method in our madness?
And we fantasize of committing crimes
And so we remain

You and I, we read about it
We idolize the criminal mind
Is there a method in our madness?
And we fantasize of committing crimes
And so we remain

And so we remain
And so we remain
And so we became
History remains, history today
