Reborn in another place
Vanishing without a trace
Daylight in another time
Disappear without a sign

Restore what we had before
Banishing an expired law
Clear view of a fallen dream
The one that we will never see

We're waiting a lifetime
To make up your mind
Wait for the right time
For your moment to arrive, to arrive

Reborn in another place
Vanishing without a trace
Daylight in another time
Disappear without a sign

The first light of the first day
Can light your path along the way
And all you give and all you take
And all you fix and all you break

Yeah, yeah yeah

We're waiting a lifetime
To make up your mind
Wait for the right time
For your moment to arrive, to arrive

Reborn in another place
Vanishing without a trace
Daylight in another time
Disappear without a sign

If you hide from yourself
You won't see no one else
If you hide from yourself
You won't see no one else

We're waiting a lifetime
To make up your mind
Wait for the right time
For your moment to arrive, to arrive

Reborn in another place
Vanishing without a trace
Daylight in another time
Disappear without a sign
Without a sign yeah yeah
