Visit "State Of Emergency" on MotoLyrics.com

We will always be, we will always be
We will always be together
We may never see, we may never see
We may never see it again

Red, red light

This is an alarm stay where you are
(State of emergency)
This is an alarm don't go too far
(State of urgency)

This is not the end
(State of urgency)
This is not the end

We may never know, we may never know
We may never know what's ahead
If you believe it then you will see it
It's in front of you and you know it's true

Red, red light

This is an alarm stay where you are
(State of emergency)
This is an alarm don't go too far
(State of urgency)

This is not the end
(State of urgency)
This is not the end

The things we hate to the love we send
What goes around comes around again
Standing on the starting line
Make a wish and make it the time

It's just begun, it's just begun
It's just begun to matter
It won't be done, it won't be done, it won't be done
Until the time has come

Red, red light

This is an alarm stay where you are
(State of emergency)

This is an alarm don't go too far
(State of urgency)

This is not the end
(State of urgency)
This is not the end
