What good's a dollar
Without your baby sister?
Two scoops of ice cream
On a summer afternoon

We ran wild
And all we ever wanted
Was to rule the world
Between our house and school

We move on
Put those dreams away
Thinking that we'll find them
Come some rainy day

First time I saw you
I knew, I would love you
Half way through sophomore year
I finally asked your name

When I kissed you
I lost my heart completely
All we wanted
Was just to stay that way

We move on
Put those dreams away
Hoping that we'll find them
Come some rainy day

How could I know
That everything would change?
Except the way I miss you
Come some rainy day

I'll sit and laugh with friends
At what we've all been through
But I still catch my breath
When someone mentions you

We move on

Put those dreams away
Thinking that we'll find them
Come some rainy day

Baby I still miss you
Come some rainy day
