In my dreams
You belong to me
She doesn't mean a thing
She never wore your ring

In my dreams
My greatest wish comes true
My arms are holding you
In my dreams

I hear your laughter and I taste your lips
I feel you tremble at my fingertips
Each night you're mine
But each morning finds you gone

In my dreams
My soul is wide awake
Craving the love we make
In my dreams

I hear your laughter and I taste your lips
I feel you tremble at my fingertips
Each night you're mine
But each morning finds you gone

In my dreams
I'll hide this love I steal
Till you feel what my heart feels
In my dreams

In my dreams
In my dreams
In my dreams
